Education and Training Institute

Thursday, September 18th, 2008

9:00am-4:30pm (Registration Starts at 8:30am)

DV 101: The Essentials We All Need to Know

This one-day training institute is designed for social workers, counselors, clergy, attorneys, judges, court personnel, teachers, probation officers, police, hospital personnel, and other professionals and individuals who are interested in receiving foundational information about domestic violence from the perspective of the National Battered Women's Movement. The state-of-the-art information presented by the faculty will include:

- Statistics on who is abused
- Sexism, the roots of domestic violence, and the need for comprehensive social change
- Dynamics of domestic violence, understanding battered women and their safety needs
- What we can do in our practice and with our policies to address domestic violence
- Answering the question of "What do we do with the men who batter?"

Presenters:

Laura Grube, LCSW

Coordinator, Child & Family Services Haven House Counseling and Advocacy Program

Remla Parthasarathy, JD

Clinical Instructor, Women, Children, and Social Justice Clinic, SUNY at Buffalo School of Law;
Community Relations Chair, Erie County Coalition Against Family Violence

Gregory R. White

Director, Catholic Charities Domestic Violence Program for Men - A New York Model for Batterer Programs

The Erie County Coalition Against Family Violence is a member-driven organization which engages in social change activism to dismantle the root causes of domestic violence at the individual, organizational, and institutional level.

Our goal is to end domestic violence.
