

presents

Understanding and Responding To Intimate Partner Violence

This full day workshop will offer several topics of interest for any professional working with or advocating for survivors of domestic, intimate partner or family violence.

July 11, 2018

8:30 - 4:30

$40

Topics to be explored in this workshop:

- Foundations of IPV
 - * Including safety planning & risk assessment
- Intersection of Culture & DV
- Legal advocacy: Orders of Protection and more

This training is designed for:

Supervisors / Managers
Social Workers / Case Managers
Law Enforcement Officials
Hotline Workers / Counselors
Youth & Adult Organizations

Morning Coffee and Lunch will be provided

Workshop location

United Way
Of Buffalo and Erie County

100

1917-2017

742 Delaware Avenue • Buffalo, NY 14209

Register online @ www.ECCAFV.org/events

You must register for this training on-line regardless of payment option.

Registration Deadline—July 6, 2018

Questions Contact: michael.chase@erie.gov